FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATTN: Florida Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys Announces Sydney Griggs' New Position with Morgan & Morgan

Tallahassee, FL – May 30, 2024 – The Florida Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys is proud to announce that Sydney Griggs, our dedicated Research Assistant, has accepted a prestigious position with the renowned law firm Morgan & Morgan. This significant career milestone reflects her unwavering commitment to justice, equality, and the advancement of our community.

Sydney has been an invaluable member of our team, contributing significantly to our research initiatives and advocacy efforts. Her dedication, intelligence, and passion have played a crucial role in furthering our mission to address and improve the social conditions of Black men and boys in Florida. Sydney's work has been instrumental in shaping policies and programs that have a lasting impact on our community.

Her journey with us has been marked by a relentless pursuit of excellence and an unwavering commitment to the cause of social justice. As she transitions to her new role at Morgan & Morgan, we are confident that she will continue to be a beacon of hope and a powerful advocate for those in need.

In the words of Martin Luther King Jr., "The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice." Sydney's journey exemplifies this truth, and we are immensely proud of her achievements. Her dedication to justice and equality will undoubtedly make a significant impact in her new role.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Sydney and wish her all the success in her new position. We are certain that her expertise, compassion, and dedication will continue to inspire and bring about positive change.
